"WHAT a place!" I thought, when I first came to this school. Coming from a strict, Finnish school to an American High School is quite a thing; so please forgive my first impression of you. When I got to know you, I realized that basically you are just like my Finnish friends. It was a wonderful observation.

Now this school year is gone and all I can say is that I have never had such a wonderful year in my life. It has been so full of nice experiences that it is hard for me to say what is the highlight. They all are "moments to remember."

I have studied with Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, and I really have enjoyed it. I want to thank you all, and especially Seniors, for being such wonderful friends to me. I'll never forget it. I also want to give my thanks to the teachers, who have helped me in so many ways. I know Foreign Students will have a nice time at this school.

Good-bye, or in my mother tongue, "Hyvasti."

After an unsuccessful pre-season, Oregon City lost their first league game but roared back for seven straight victories. The team then lost fire, and dropped from second place to tie for third. Coach Frank Good completed his first year at the helm for Oregon City.

WRESTLING

DISTRIST NO. 2

O. C. sent 23 wrestlers to the Dist. No. 2 tournament at David Douglas. O. C. won 3rd place and qualified 5 wrestlers for the State Tournament at Corvallis.

Mitzi Tamura	1st	115 lbs.
Keith Whitlock	2nd	123 lbs.
Ken Kirchem	1st	148 lbs.
Don Kendig	1st	191 lbs.
Al Wright	1st	Heavyweight

DUEL MATCHES

Oregon City lost 5 and won 2 matches in T.Y.V. Duel competition. In 13 duel matches, O. C. won 3, tied 1 and lost 9. Our losses in duel matches were caused by weakness in the light weights and also because most teams would not wrestle O. C. in the 191 lb. class. O. C. wrestlers had more than their share of injuries and sickness this year.

The Scotch Twins

Dramatized by Elenor Ellis Perkins

Presented On April 5, 1956

This play takes place in the Scottish Highlands. Therefore, it gave us the opportunity to use the plaids, kilts, bagpipes and all of the dances of the Scottish people.

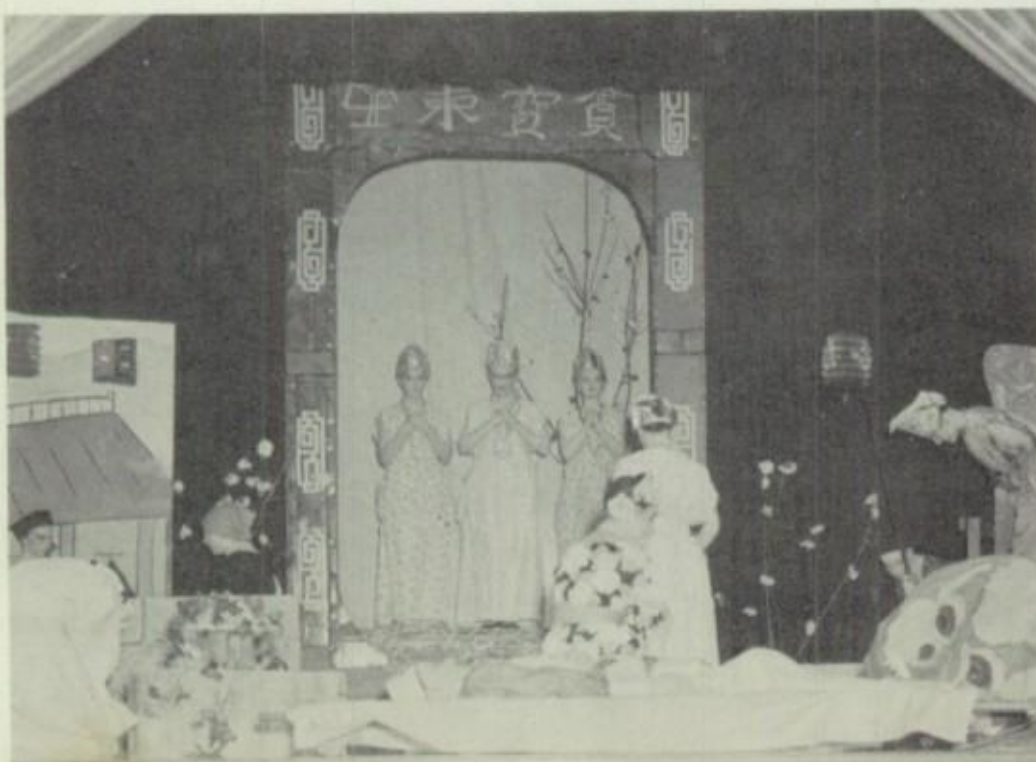

The Wicked Wang-Pah Meets a Dragon By

Floralyn Cadwell

Presented on Feb. 3, 1956

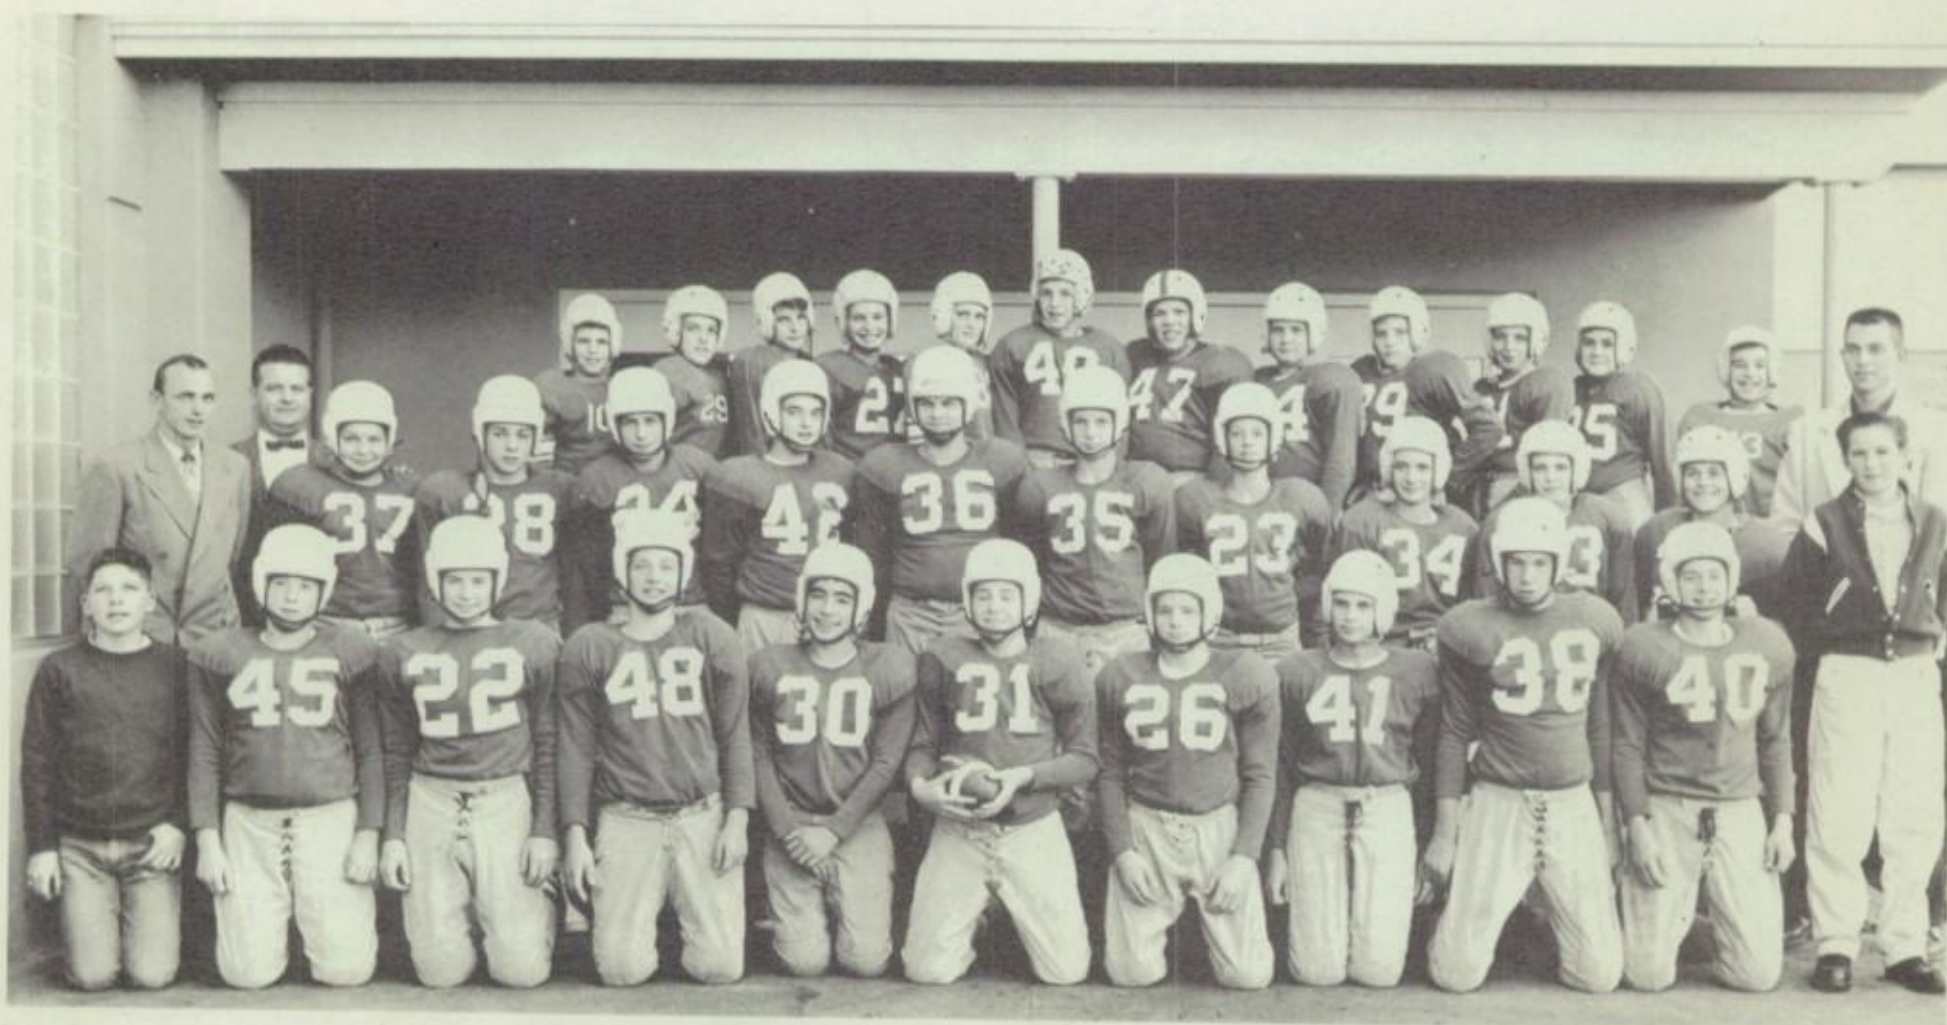

This Chinese Fantasy in Three Acts was very well received by the audience. Colorful costumes and sets made this a charming play. Both stage crew and actors worked very hard on this production.
